The cases of 25 Chinese gamblers who were arrested by the Honolulu detectives last evening at the Punioa camp of the Honolua plantation, will be tried before Judge Andrade on Saturday.

The directors of the Japanese Charity hospital held a meeting last Tuesday evening at which Dr. Oyama was elected president of that institution.
Dr. Oyama is quite popular among the Japanese community.

The United States Court is still engaged in the trial of Nectario Ruiz and Isabella Salamanca accused of adultery. The entire court went down to Kakaako this morning to view the scene of the alleged offense.

Purser A. M. Plefer of the steamer Kauai, which arrived from Hawaii this morning, reported that the buoy at Kukuhaleo was found adrift near Waipio. The Kauai brought 77 head of cattle and 14 pieces machinery.

Manuel Richard, the backdrifter who was arrested yesterday on a charge of disturbing the quiet of the night, had his case nols prossed in the Police Court this morning. It has now been found that he was not at the place where the disturbance complained of was going on.

The steamer Claudine which arrived this morning, brought the following freight from Hawaii and Maui: 300 ohia ties, 30 cases beans, 45 cases B. S. coal, 127 cases corn, 28 barrels empty bottles, 2 horses, 16 hogs, 1 lot scrap iron, 143 packages candles.

One of the registered mail pouches that left here on Tuesday by the Kauai has been "touched" for a sum in the neighborhood of $2500. The robbery occurred during the transmission of the mail from the Kauai to the postoffice at Kamuela. Only two registered packages were taken. One package contained $1000 and was for the paying of the employees of the Hamakua Ditch Company. The other package was sent by F. A.
Schaefer & Co. to Honokaa and contained $1500.

FAIRWEATHER "GRUEL, BRUTAL AND INHUMAN"

Brutal, cruel and inhuman treatment is the charge brought against Dr. Norman S. Fairweather by his wife Corinne A. Fairweather in an affidavit filed with the clerk of the Circuit Court this afternoon. The affidavit is filed in support of a motion by E. C.
Peters, attorney for Mrs. Fairweather, for temporary alimony and counsel fees, pending the termination of the suit for divorce brought by Dr. Fairweather against his wife. The motion prays that the doctor be summoned to appear before the Court and show cause, if he has any, why he should not be required to pay temporary alimony and a sum sufficient to make good the indigentness of $150 incurred since the beginning of the suit, also attorney's fees.

In her affidavit Mrs. Fairweather alleges that she has been for over a year in ill health due to continued abuse and ill treatment on the part of her husband, whose conduct, she claims, has been during that period
